

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: STOPPING THE HORROR OF MODERN DAY SLAVERY

OCTOBER 22 | 8 AM-4 PM
WEST VIRGINIA STATE FAIRGROUNDS
CECIL UNDERWOOD BUILDING

“YOU MAY CHOOSE TO LOOK
THE OTHER WAY, BUT YOU CAN NEVER SAY AGAIN THAT YOU DID NOT KNOW.” – WILLIAM WILBERFORCE

As despicable as it sounds, children in today’s modern world are being bought and sold as part of a billion-dollar industry – the sex trade.

Human trafficking doesn’t just happen across the world or even across the country. It’s happening across the Mountain State and perhaps even across the street. As long as we ignore the problem, it will continue to grow, and more and more lives will be lost or destroyed.

Human Trafficking: Stopping the Horror of Modern Day Slavery is a one-day workshop hosted by the Greenbrier Valley AGLOW Community Lighthouse and designed to equip social workers, law enforcement, psychologists, nurses, educators, pastors, neighbors and parents with the knowledge and tools they need to eradicate this grave and growing danger.

*Continuing education units (CEUs) for this course are available for various professions.
Please see the registration form for provider details.*
